UNFINISHED BUSINESS

1. May is Litter Clean-Up Month-The Commission will kick off litter clean up month by offering bags and gloves which Alderman Butler secured from St. Louis County at the Arbor Day booth.
2. Green Thumb Awards-Members took nomination forms to pass out to friends and neighbors. Anne Nixon sent an e-mail blast to everyone on the City's Notify Me list.
3. Arbor Day and Arbor Day Poster Contest-Alderman Butler has confirmation from Mason Ridge and Raintree plus interest from Principia. The Commission would like to award an award as well as a People's Choice Award. Anne Nixon collected T-shirt orders for the Arbor Day Commission T-shirts. Thank you to Sam Eveland for securing sponsorship for the shirts from Brown & Crouppen.

NEW BUSINESS

OTHER

1. Alderman Butler told the Commission that the Board would discuss the possibility of discussions with the Pappas Family regarding preserving their home.
